

Exciting Times In Wheat Pit When "Bear" Raid Is Attempted

WINNIPEG, Oct. 10.—Last week was a momentous one in the wheat market. What is characterized as a "bear raid" developed in the early part of the week until a threat was made that a government investigation was in the offing.

John I. McFarland, in charge of Canadian government wheat operations, claimed "unwarranted selling of wheat in the pit" and suggested an investigation into these selling operations.

Almost immediately came rumors that the government was in difficulties and likely to dump its holdings on the market. Mr. McFarland came out with a prompt denial and gave the assurance that no government wheat would be sold until it was actually wanted by the consumers. He mentioned, however, that in one day ten million bushels of wheat had been sold "short" on the exchange. On that occasion country deliveries were tight so the selling could be no stretch of the imagination he attributed to selling pressure.

Prices meantime broke six cents in two days but in the two succeeding days half of this was recovered with the aid of a much improved export demand for Canadian wheat. Mr. McFarland was not called upon to give the market any help in its rally.

October wharf fell to its lowest level since the late part of May, when it sank to 74 1/2 cents to close the advance record as a consequence of nature's toll of world grain crops during July and August, and, of course, wheat values the past week were back to where they were before, drought and grasshoppers wiped out hundreds of millions of bushels of growing crops.

Liverpool, Chicago and Buenos Aires followed the downward lead of Winnipeg and the break in prices here, instead of narrowing up the spread between Canadian and Argentine wheat, actually widened it. It, strange to relate, the improved export trade in Canadian wheat developed after the premium wheat had widened more than a bushel.

The nature of the selling that proved so weighty on the market was the prize puzzle of the week. Of its volume there was little doubt. Millions and millions of bushels were poured into the pit and the wheat agency, in carrying out its plan of supporting the farmers' market at low rates, was called upon to absorb these heavy offerings or witness a price collapse.

Farmers were delivering slightly more than a million bushels of wheat daily but the volume of sales was many times this figure. It was suggested in some quarters that the government purchases were greater on some of these days than others, since stabilization was started.

A theory was advanced that the "shorts", being disappointed that weather conditions had held their vesting operations in Western Canada for two weeks and brought down deliveries to negligible quantities, made a raid on the market in an endeavor to accomplish what they had hoped farmers' wheat would do.

It is notable that Liverpool took the lead in the bearish movement and Argentine followed close after it. In fact Argentine's market dropped faster than did Winnipeg.

It is also rumored that big international traders, acting through 15 Winnipeg brokers, aimed to make McFarland unload at around six and then hold the wheat they had bought for $1.00. McFarland's action in making the plan.

BOARD OF TRADE

Again active business at the regular meeting of the Barabano Board of Trade was postponed when only nine members turned up at the Imperial Hotel last Wednesday noon. Stated was the chief cause of the absence of the business.

The next meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, October 24, has been postponed. On that day there is a Masque function in Medicine Hat and many local Masons have signified their intention of attending.

On Wednesday, November 7, every effort will be made to have all members present for the luncheon meeting. By that time there should be a full quota of business.

ARE WE TOO IMPATIENT?

One constant source of irritation to mankind is the slowness of movements to develop and of remedial processes to take effect.

We expect wrongs to be righted immediately, illogical processes to be set right, and harmful things to be entirely obliterated forthwith.

All these corrections take time—and patience. To short-lived man a year is a long, long period, but in the gleam of a million suns it is a trivial division of a moment.

Nature takes a million or so years to wear down the rock to make a Marble Canyon or a Niagara.

But men, in the brief span of years he lives on the earth, cannot wait. He wants things done quickly.

Yet even the uprooting of an obviously erroneous tradition takes generations to accomplish.

There are certain progressive movements that must take time. They cannot be hurried.

We are all looking through too short an arc in the circle of Time.

THE STORK IS FALLING DOWN

There is said to be over-production of many commodities throughout the world. But the production of babies is slowing down. The stork seems to be 'going slow' on the job.

The League of Nations year book relates a decided falling off in the birth-rate of most countries. The figures for 1933 show a general decline which in a number of countries has reached a new minimum.

In the latter part of the Eighteenth Century mankind increased in numbers at a prodigious rate. Since the dawn of the Twentieth Century, and particularly since the commencement of the Great War, babies have been coming in fewer quantities.

The excess of births over deaths in Europe in 1923 was 3,500,000. In 1933, ten years later, the excess was down to 2,500,000.

Cupid has been remiss in his duties, too, for the marriage rate has shown a decline each year from 1929 until 1932. In 1933 an increase was registered.

The Japanese and Russians seem to be leading the world in respect to increases in the birth-rate. The nations of the western world show the greatest losses.

A large natural increase in population is a sign of vigor and potency in a nation. Western nations seem to have reached a slowing down period which may possibly be permanent.

PLENTY AMIDST POVERTY

Plenty in the midst of poverty.
How often has that phrase been repeated during the past four years!

The speaker makes the statement, the audience nods its head, and there the matter ends.

Very few attempts are made to analyze the reason for the paradoxical situation. Usually the blame is placed upon "the system."

The Canadian farmer has lots of wheat, hogs, cattle, butter, eggs and so on. He wants to exchange these for clothing, shoes, furniture, machinery, books, education for his children, etc. But he can't get enough money for his products to buy the things he wants.

If all farm production in Canada was consumed by Canadians the proper price relationship could be more readily arrived at. But that situation does not prevail. Overseas nations have to buy the Canadian surplus in order to give our farmers the money to buy their wants.

Overseas countries will only pay world prices for what they buy and the world market is the most fiercely competitive of all. So our Canadian farmers have to go without things, of which there is a plenty, because he can't get enough money from his production to buy.

So we have plenty and poverty side by side.

AUTUMN TIME

The unkind frosts of late September prevented the trees from going through their usual autumn color processing.

The Frost King struck when the leaves were wearing their summer dress of green. Instead of permitting them to blend slowly into the more sober browns and duns of autumn, the Weatherman withered them quickly and harshly.

The prairie is grey-brown and sear, the nutritious buffalo grass, skimpy in growth from a dry season, curling closely to the vast earth's breast.

The short grain fields look vacantly into the October skies. Only an occasional strawflower relieves their monotony.

The green-headed mallard ducks will soon be down in large numbers from the north to populate the sloughs. The great Canada grey geese trace their faint phalanges on a far sky.

Autumn time is here.

THE VALUE OF MAKING FRIENDS

'Get acquainted with your neighbors,' an old saying related, 'you might like them.'

It's the business of staying aloof and isolated that makes people suspicious.

The other fellow is a creature much like yourself—with similar ideals and impulses and with troubles and joys, hopes and ambitions, much the same.

Friendly and considerate people get along well together and also with others who may be more reticent and ingrowing.

Making friends should be the principle thing in life. It may not enable a man to roll up a money fortune but the memory of a true friend lasts long after he has departed.

The memory of a money-maker does not last so long and, as Jim Hill once remarked, "There are no pockets in shrouds."

The stomach is a bowl-shaped cavity containing the organs of indigestion.

To be healthy don't eat any kind of food.

The liver is an infernal organ of the body.

One of the main causes of dust is janitors.

I'M GONNA TRY

I'm gonna try to play the game,
And play it hard and play it fair;
I may not win but just the same
I'm gonna try to do my share.
I may not always meet the test
As well as some more clever guy,
But while my heart beats in my breast

I'm gonna try.

I'm gonna try to stand the gaff
Yet keep my nerve; I'm gonna seek
To love and work and play and laugh.

I'm gonna struggle to be kind.

And not go hard of face and eye,
I'll flap at times, but never mind,
I'm gonna try.

I'm gonna try to be a friend.

That folks can trust and who they know

Will be the same way to the end,
Whether the luck runs high or low;
I'll hitch my wagon to a star
And set my goal up in the sky.

And though I may not get that far
I'm gonna try.

THE PRACTICAL AND THE IDEAL

Alberta Pool Elevators is a creation of the agricultural co-operative movement and as such is closely knit to the families on the land who believe in and act upon the principles of co-operation in order to better their condition.

Commercial success is highly important but it is to be regarded only as a means to an end—the improvement of the living conditions of rural people.

The major function of this extensive country and terminal elevator system owned by the Alberta farmers is to give support to their natural aspirations for a more secure rural tenure.

Both the practical and the ideal sides of the farm movement are united in Alberta Pool Elevators and on this basis a general appeal for support is extended to all grain growers.
